

Oncology Nurse Earns Certification

(Olean, NY)..... Having successfully met all eligibility and renewal requirements prescribed by the Oncology Nursing Certification Corporation (ONCC), registered nurse Margaret Blue has received certification in adult oncology nursing.

Margaret, Margie as she is known to her patients, works in collaboration with Dr. John Weinhold, Jr., who practices oncology and hematology at Olean Medical Group in Olean, New York. She is currently in her 24th year at Olean Medical Group as a registered nurse in the oncology/hematology department.

This designation by the ONCC permits Mrs. Blue to use the OCN® credential after her name. The OCN® certification is a validation of an individual's knowledge in adult oncology nursing and further, ensures the integrity of quality care to patients with cancer. This certification is effective through December 31, 2018.
